Invitation and Call for Papers

Organizer: International Academy for Quality

The International Academy for Quality is an independent, self-supported, non-profit, non-governmental organization that is administered by a collegial assembly of Academicians who have been elected by their peers from the most respected, active and experienced protagonists of quality in the world. Individuals may not apply for Academy membership.

The mission of the IAQ is to capitalize upon the leadership and abilities of its Academicians, both individually and in teams, to advance, worldwide, knowledge, understanding and use of the philosophy, theory and practice of activities involved in achieving quality for the benefit of mankind.

Objectives of the IAQ World Quality Forum

The first IAQ World Quality Forum will give a message to the whole Quality World. The Forum expects participants from all over the world to inform them on the latest development of the quality management, trends, methods and tools. The IAQ Members are preparing the so-called IAQ Discussion Panels, but all Speakers and Poster Presenters are welcome with well-founded abstracts relating to the selected topics of the World Forum. Also recognized Quality Development Teams will get a flour to introduce their achievements. All quality committed people: Representatives of the Top-Management, Quality Management Departments, Marketing, etc. from the private, but also from public sector, from research and education institutions, especially from universities and also consultants are welcome as contributors and participants. The First IAQ World Quality Forum intends to give a message for the Future of the World how important is quality thinking by governments, companies, organizations, people and all together the whole society.
